Client

Australia New Zealand Bank (Fiji Branch) – Design and Installation of State of the Art CCTV Solution

Client Requirements

- Surveillance cameras were installed throughout every branch, including dedicated ATM cameras and coverage for cashiers to ensure secure handling and traceability of transactions. These measures were integral to preventing fraud and managing asset risks effectively.
- Additionally, a comprehensive archive of footage was maintained to facilitate audits and investigations as needed.

Integrated Solution

- The integrated solution provided encompassed the deployment of CCTV systems across all branches, including specialized ATM cameras and coverage for cashiers to ensure secure transaction handling and traceability.
- This comprehensive approach effectively contributed to fraud prevention and asset risk management. Furthermore, the solution included the establishment of a robust footage archive, facilitating seamless audits and investigations whenever necessary.

Business Value Delivered

- The business value delivered through the integrated solution was substantial. By implementing CCTV systems across all branches, including specialized cameras for ATMs and cashiers, the bank enhanced security measures significantly. This comprehensive approach not only contributed to fraud prevention but also mitigated risks associated with asset management. Additionally, the establishment of a robust footage archive provided invaluable support for audits and investigations, ensuring operational integrity and bolstering customer trust.
